Memorandum of Understanding on Student Exchange between
The University of Copenhagen, Faculty of Law
And
The University of Chile, Faculty of Law

In furtherance of their mutual interests in the fields of education and research and as a contribution to increased international cooperation The University of Copenhagen, Faculty of Law and The University of Chile, Faculty of Law have approved the following agreement which shall last until 17 September 2006:

1. The two institutions will endeavour to develop and implement a program of student exchange in accordance with the following principles.

2. Exchange of undergraduate and postgraduate students may take place for a period normally of one academic semester without payment to the host institution of any fees other than those relating to board and lodging and obligatory membership of campus organizations. The academic standing of such exchange students shall be determined by the host institution. Students from The University of Copenhagen's Faculty of Law and the University of Chile's Faculty of Law, will be accorded the rights and privileges of students in the host country in accordance with the general regulations in force.

Accreditation for the academic work carried out by the student during the period of the exchange will be at the discretion of the student's home institution. The host institution will not incur any formal responsibility in connection with the conferment of degrees or diplomas towards which credit has been earned by participation in the exchange program.

3. Admission to a specific course is subject only to the student being satisfactorily qualified for the chosen area of study and to the availability of resources in the period for which admission is sought.

4. The names of the students from University of Chile's Faculty of Law, for the autumn term should be submitted to The University of Copenhagen before April the 15th, and for the spring term before October the 1st. The names of the students from The University of Copenhagen's Faculty of Law, for both the autumn and the spring term, should be submitted to University of Chile, Faculty of Law before April the 15th.

Each proposal must be accompanied by the appropriate application form, a curriculum vitae, and a specific outline of the desired program of study.
Unless otherwise agreed, each University shall have the right to send no more than 2 students for one semester to the other during the term of this agreement.

Furthermore, each University retains the right to implement this agreement in accordance with the principle of reciprocity.

5. Candidates for the exchange program shall be the responsibility of the home institution. The host institution retains the right of admission and may reject any applicant whose academic or other qualifications for participation in the program are not deemed appropriate.

6. The host institution undertakes to assist in the renting of appropriate housing, the completion of immigration formalities, and to supply work space, library and technical facilities as appropriate.

7. All exchange students must abide by the internal regulations and codes of conduct applicable to students in the host institution.

The agreement shall be reviewed and, subject to the agreement of both institutions, may be extended.

AGREEMENT ON ACADEMIC EXCHANGE
BETWEEN
UNIVERSITY OF CHILE
AND THE UNIVERSITY OF COPENHAGEN

The Rector of the University of Copenhagen and the Rector of the University of Chile agree to conclude the following agreement on academic exchange with the objective of promoting cooperation in the fields of education and academic research.

Article 1.
The University of Copenhagen and the University of Chile agree to promote the following activities to enhance the educational and academic roles of the institutions:
1. Activities such as collaborative research, lectures, symposiums, etc., and exchange of scholars and researchers pertaining thereto.
2. Exchange of information and materials in those fields which are of interest to both institutions.
3. Exchange of scholars and researchers, other than those referred to in item 1. above.
4. Exchange of undergraduate students and graduate students.

Article 2.
Matters pertaining to the implementation of the exchange based on this agreement shall be negotiated and agreed upon between the two parties in each specific case.

Article 3.
This agreement will take effect on the date of its signing by the responsible representatives of the institutions and will be in force for 5 years. Either institution may terminate the agreement by giving 6 months' written notice to the other institution. In the absence of such an early termination, the renewal of this agreement shall be discussed by both institutions no less than 6 months prior to the natural termination of the current agreement.

AGREEMENT OF CO-OPERATION BETWEEN THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE
AND THE UNIVERSITY OF COPENHAGEN
ON STUDENT EXCHANGE

The agreement for the academic exchange program between the University of Chile and the University of Copenhagen, as it relates to the exchange of students, shall be implemented in the following way:

Article 1
The students participating in the exchange program under the terms of this Agreement of Co-operation shall be selected initially by the home University, and the host University shall make final admission decisions in each case.

Article 2
Each year, not more than 2 students for one academic year may be enrolled at the partner University, and the number of the students shall be modified by mutual consultation in advance. Either institution may send a student for one semester rather than a full academic year, with two students enrolling for one semester each being equivalent to one student enrolling for one year.
It is understood that a balance in number of students exchanged shall be sought over two year periods.

Article 3
The period of enrolment of the students shall not exceed one year.

Article 4
The host University shall waive application, matriculation, and tuition fees for the students. All other expenses (accommodation, international travel, travel in the host country, books, health insurance and other incidental expenses) will be the responsibility of the student.

Article 5
The field of study for each student shall be such that the host University can appoint a qualified advisor and provide appropriate courses of study.

Article 6
In order to carry out the study, each student shall possess sufficient language ability requested by the host University.

Article 7
Participating students shall continue as candidates for degrees at their home University and will not be candidates for degrees at the host University.
Article 8
Each University agrees to provide documentation of the course work completed by the students as well as appropriate academic information about the performance of the students at the host University. The home University shall be responsible for awarding subject credits based on work undertaken and evaluated at the host University.

Article 9
The host University shall make efforts to ensure that the students are provided assistance in finding adequate housing on or near the campus.

Article 10
The liaisons for this agreement will be the International Office at the University of Copenhagen, and the Department of International Relations at the University of Chile.

Article 11
This agreement shall remain in force for a period of five (5) years from the date of the last signature, with the understanding that it may be terminated by either party giving twelve months notice to the other party in writing. The agreement may be extended by mutual consent of the two parties.
