

AGREEMENT FOR EDUCATIONAL AND SCIENTIFIC COOPERATION

BETWEEN

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE

AND

THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO OF THE STATE OF OHIO, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

This Agreement is made and entered by and between the UNIVERSITY OF CHILE, Santiago, Chile, represented by its Rector, Dr. Jaime Lavados M., and THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO of the State of Ohio, USA, represented by its President, Dr. Frank E. Horton.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, The University of Chile and The University of Toledo are interested in promoting further cooperation between the United States of America and Chile.

WHEREAS, it would be mutually beneficial to establish a program of cooperation between the parties in order to achieve significant contributions to the development of the educational programs of each of the parties.

WHEREAS, the two institutions wish to establish ties of friendship and cooperation for the purpose of promoting mutual understanding and academic, cultural, scientific, and personnel exchange.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is mutually agreed by the parties as follows:

TEACHING AND RESEARCH PERSONNEL EXCHANGE

1. In general terms, the two universities will endeavor to cooperate in education and research in areas of mutual interest, and to the extent feasible, to encourage direct contact and cooperation between faculty members, departments and research institutions under provisions of this agreement.
2. In specific terms, both universities agree to consult on the possibilities of exchange of teaching and research personnel. Exchangees may be of any branch of learning, and the time of each exchangee to stay at the host university will be agreed upon by the parties separately.
3. Each academic activity or project will be described in a specific ADDENDUM to this Agreement, which will establish the academic, scientific, administrative and financial details for the implementation of such project.

STUDENT EXCHANGE

4. The parties will consult each other on the possibilities for student exchanges at the undergraduate and at the graduate levels. The conditions and characteristics of such student exchange program, will be described under a separate agreement.

BOOKS, RESEARCH, AND INFORMATIONAL EXCHANGE

5. Both universities will attempt to develop an exchange of appropriate books and reference materials including teaching programs guidance materials, university materials, and the like, published in each of the two universities. Both universities will explore possibilities for exchanging books and reference materials published in their respective countries.
6. Themes of any joint activities and the conditions for utilizing results achieved and arrangements for specific visits, exchanges, and other forms of cooperation will be developed mutually for each specific area.

OTHER RELATED ARTICLES

7. Both parties understand that all financial agreements will be negotiated and will depend on the availability of funds at each institution. Moreover, nothing in this agreement shall be construed as creating any legal or financial relationships between the parties.
8. Exchange personnel must abide by the laws of the host country and the rules and regulations of the host university.
9. Any articles in this agreement may be amended or revised by the two universities after consultation and mutual agreement. Any issues not mentioned in this agreement may be resolved through mutual agreement.
10. This agreement becomes effective when signed by the representatives of the two universities. This agreement shall remain in effect for three years or until one of the universities notifies the other of its wish to terminate the agreement at least ninety (90) days before the end of the academic year.
